My fellow inventors, now is the best time to become an entrepreneur – Adrian Pelkus

We have "successful inventors" inventors presenting this month:

With over six-dozen patents, Clifford Wright / San Diego Inventor & Businessman of the Year, a prominent biochemical engineer and CEO of Bossc International in San Diego, has been recognized for his extensive list of medical inventions. Wright has also received recognition for other industry designs from numerous automotive, contractor, and handymen publications and organizations. One of his most notable inventions is the Light Wrench. Wright's recent inventions have targeted the automotive industry and include the HI:BEAM line from Bossc International. <https://commerce.rsaa.com/bossc/index.cfm>

Also scheduled to speak – Founders of Pacific Pathway / <http://www.lifegearcompany.com/>
And more!!

Discovery Science that is looking NATIONWIDE for builders, scientists, inventors, engineers, carpenters, welders, mechanics, architects, etc. to take part in a game show for thinkers, dreamers and doers, who are eager to let their inner MacGyvers be seen. Contact me for further info & email link.

The SEDC Entrepreneur Academy is currently accepting applicants for the Spring 2009 Series. The Academy has information that is a must for any one who is in business or is thinking about going into business. The entire series cost $100.00 or you can sign up for the individual workshops at a cost of $20.00 each. <http://www.sedcinc.com/entrepreneur.html>

Spotlight Pitch May 6 & 7, 2009

Pitch to Garden Weasel at the 2009 Inventor's Spotlight of the National Hardware Show. They are seeking new consumer product inventions to distribute to the mass market. This is your opportunity to present to those searching for unique and valued products.

INVENTOR'S MENTOR Patenting bug fixes is definitely possible and can be fun. No joke! Find out about weird Microsoft bugs lurking around in MS Word, Notepad and Windows in this month's newsletter "The Inventor's Mentor". For archived copies of the newsletters and more information for inventors go to Patents and Ventures.

Each month Judy Balian writes two newsletters--one with valuable marketing tips/information and one with ideas to help you rediscover your creativity. <http://www.excoveries.com/newsletter.html>

Greg Zima, Founder and President, GaZima Games markets new board and action games. Have a game invention?
